

首先真的很感謝學校與國際處的幫助，讓我出國交換的夢想能夠更得更加順利，我很高興能夠來到韓國度過大學的最後一個學期，很難用言語形容這半年帶給我的收穫，我也相信這絕對是我人生的一個轉捩點，是一個非常難能可貴的體驗。

26-1 學校簡介

梨花女子大學是韓國歷史最悠久的大學之一，其商學院和中山大學管理學院同是受到亞洲 AACSB 認證的。梨花女子大學所設有的科系，涵蓋了韓國國內所有大學的科系，學校提供豐富多樣的課程。為照顧國際交換生，梨花女子大學也提供了豐富的英文授課課程讓同學們選擇，使交換學生不用擔心有韓語溝通上的困難。來自世界各地的學生聚集一堂，能在交換的學期中，藉由向教授請益以及與國際學生間的交流，提升韓語、英語能力與國際金融知識，增長國際視野，淬鍊職場競爭力。

26-2 國外研修之課程學習（課內）

我在這一學期，修了一門韓語 level2，是 6 學分的課程，我非常喜歡授課的方式，每星期一到四，從早上 8 點到 11 點 45 分，在這快三小時的時間，老師很用心的讓大家練習韓語，無論是聽說讀寫都有扎實的訓練，而且老師每個星期都會驗收，對我來說，韓文在這短短的時間，有很大的進步。

另外，修了三門英文授課的課程，分別是 International Trade and Investment、Introduction to Modern China、Quantitative Analysis，都是三學分的課程。這一學期比較可惜的是因為疫情的關係，都採用線上授課，除了韓文課以外的課程都是教授事先錄製影片或編制講義，透過影片或講義的方式學習。沒有機會與老師或同學們互動。

26-3 國外研修之生活學習（課外）

過去我是一個很害羞的人，並不擅於主動去認識人及和人交際，但在來到韓國交換後，我結交了來自各國的朋友，而他們使我改變了很多。他們的熱情和大方傳染了我，讓我變得更加主動，也更勇於和人搭話。例如，搬到宿舍的第一天，我見到了我的德國室友名叫 Alina，她充滿熱情的向我自我介紹，之後經常並帶著我一起參加交換生們的聚會，我們一起生活的期間裡慢慢感染了我，讓我變得更加外向。學校的國際事務處也為我們安排的 Peace buddy 的活動，在這活動中，我認識了一位梨花大學的韓國同學，他非常關心我在學校的生活，解答我很多大大小小的疑惑，並且推薦我許多學校附近的餐廳與景點。

26-4 交換/研修之具體效益（請條列式列舉）

1. 增廣國際金融知識
2. 強化英語會話能力
3. 學習韓語溝通實力
4. 訓練獨立生活技能
5. 開拓國際視野、體認多方文化習俗
6. 培養人際關係與社交能力
7. 淬鍊職場競爭力

26-5 感想與建議

時間過得很快，在韓國已經度過4個月了。來到韓國的這段期間，我變得更加獨立，在外遇到的許多難題必須自己解決，讓我變得更加能夠冷靜處理問題。

雖然這學期受到 CORNA-19 的影響，相對之下擁有的體驗較少了。不能與老師和同學們見面，但是透過線上的課程，仍與大家有許多互動。雖然非常可惜的沒有課堂結束，與同學們一起聊天和吃午餐的機會。但是，我還是很珍惜在這裡的每一天，盡可能充實每天的生活。例如：在天氣好的下午，到很少人的咖啡廳看風景，喝著咖啡，並一邊唸著教材，慢步調的享受著在韓國風情。

而為了節省開銷，我也經常在宿舍自己料理三餐，也因此發現煮菜一個很有趣的過程，從規劃需要的食材到一步一步的料理，最後吃著自己完成的菜餚會感到非常開心。

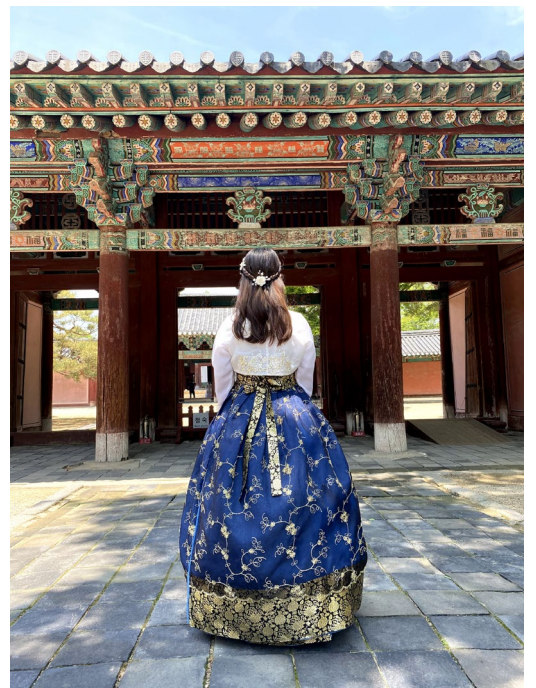

交換學生計畫，使我不僅僅是獲得課業上的知識，我得到更多的是體驗。最後我想給的建議是，如果有機會，各位同學一定要把握時間和機會在這個成長空間更盛的時期出國走走，相信大家都一定會和我一樣有所收穫和成長的！

梨花女子大學最有名的拍照景點，由於疫情的關係，學校限制觀光客進入，因此這學期學校沒有外地來的遊客。

韓國人非常愛喝咖啡，因此，咖啡廳非常盛行，且有很多不同設計風格，有機會可以去造訪。

韓國有許多從過去保留下來的韓屋村，非常的古色古香，很適合拍照，也能體驗韓服。

在韓國餐廳吃飯的話，費用較高，所以平常為了節省伙食費，會自己做飯。

和其他交換學生一起體驗韓食。

My name is Sin-Ying, Jhuang. I major in the Department of Applied Mathematics and Department of Financial Management. When I was young, I didn't have the opportunity to go abroad. I was curious about the world. I remember in one of my classes before, a professor mentioned, "We should broaden our horizons in college. It will definitely be the most worthwhile investment in life." It made me more eager to study abroad and discover what the experience has to offer.

First of all, I am really grateful for Office of International Affairs, which made my dream of going abroad more smoothly. I am very glad to be able to come to Korea to spend the last semester of the university. I believe this is definitely a turning point in my life and a very commendable experience.

Time flies, I have already spent 5 months in Korea. During my stay in Korea, I became more independent. Many of the problems I encountered abroad had to be solved by myself, making me more able to deal with problems calmly. In the past, I was a very shy person. I was not good at meeting people and communicating with others. But after coming to Korea to exchange, I made friends from various countries, and they changed me a lot. Their enthusiasm and generosity infected me, making me more active and courageous to talk to people. For example, on the first day of moving to the dormitory, I met my German roommate named Alina. She introduced herself to me with passion. After that, she often took me to meet other exchange students. She gradually infected me and made me more outgoing. The Office of International Affairs also arranged a Peace Buddy activity for exchange students. Every exchange student has one buddy from school. My buddy very concerned about my life in school and answered many of my doubts, and she recommended many restaurants and attractions near my school.

I took a course which named Korean 2 this semester. I really like the way of teaching. Every Monday to Thursday, the course is from 8 am to 11:45. During these three hours, the teacher is very attentive to let everyone practice Korean, there is solid training in listening, speaking, reading and writing, and the teacher will check everyone's results every week. For me, Korean has made great progress in this short period of time.

This semester is affected by Coronavirus (COVID-19), I cannot meet teachers and classmates. However, through online courses, there are many interactions with everyone. Although it is a pity that there is no opportunity to chat and eat lunch with classmates after class, I still cherish every day here and make my daily life as full as possible. For example, in the afternoon when the weather is good, I like to go to a cafe to see the scenery, drink coffee, and read books while enjoying the life in Korea.

In order to save money, I often cook my own meals in the dormitory, so I found a very interesting process of cooking, from purchasing ingredients to step-by-step cooking, and finally I would be very happy to eat them.

The exchange of student plans has enabled me not only to gain knowledge in the coursework, but also to get more experience. In the end, I would like to suggest that if you have the opportunity, all students must seize the time and opportunity to go abroad in this period of greater growth space. I believe everyone will be able to learn something new and gain skills of live a life alone like me!
