- On average, adults working full time in Canada earn more per month than those in Australia, France, Germany and the U.K.
- 90% of college graduates are employed

Working After Graduation: Impact of COVID-19

疫情的影響：畢業後就業

How the post-graduation work permit (PGWP) eligibility is affected:

If you're inside Canada:

You're still eligible for the PGWP if:

- Your in-person classes in Canada have been moved to an online-only format and you are taking your classes online because; or
- You had to put your studies on hold, or study part-time, during winter, spring or summer 2020 semesters.

If you're outside Canada:

If you can't travel to Canada at this time and you're taking classes online, you're still eligible for a PGWP. To be eligible you must:

- Meet all the other PGWP requirements;
- have been enrolled in a program that was in progress in March 2020, or started or will start a program between spring 2020 and fall 2021.

Information accurate as of August 30, 2021*

For more information on eligibility visit the Government of Canada's Immigration,
Refugees and Citizenship website:
www.cic.gc.ca (under the Study section)

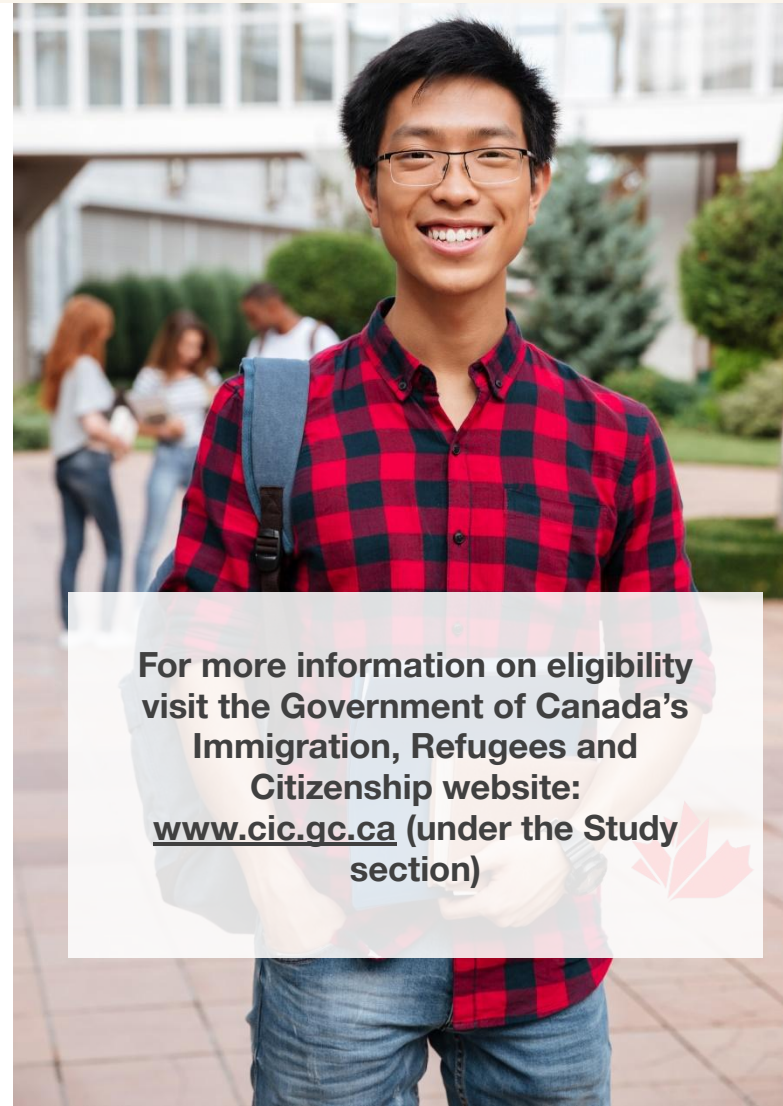

Working After Graduation: Impact of COVID-19 on PGWP 疫情的影響：畢業後工作簽證

How much of your studies count toward a PGWP:

- You can complete 100% of your studies online from outside Canada.
- All your time studying online outside Canada between spring 2020 and December 31, 2021, counts toward the length of a PGWP.

Time spent studying outside Canada after December 31, 2021, won't count towards the length of a PGWP.

Information accurate as of August 30, 2021*

Study Permits

入學許可

- You need a study permit to study in Canada for six months or longer
- You need the following documents to apply:
 - Proof of acceptance
 - Valid passport
 - Proof of financial support
 - Letter of explanation
- There are two ways to apply:
 - Online
 - On paper
- For more information on eligibility, applying and how to prepare for your arrival in Canada, visit the Government of Canada's Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship website: www.cic.gc.ca (under the Study section)

Study Permits

學生簽證

If you're applying for a study permit, you should apply online, whether you're outside of Canada or already in Canada. When you apply, you should submit:

- the letter of acceptance issued to you by the designated learning institution (DLI) you'll be attending
- as many of the documents needed for a complete application as possible
- a letter of explanation for any documents that are missing due to COVID-19

If you can't apply online because of a disability or because there's a problem with the online application, you can apply on paper.

If you plan to study in Quebec, you must provide a valid Quebec Acceptance Certificate or proof that you applied for one.

Government of Canada announces additional easing of border measures effective April 25

Unvaccinated or partially vaccinated children aged 5-11 who are accompanied by a fully vaccinated parent, step-parent, guardian or tutor will no longer be required to complete a pre-entry COVID-19 test for entry to Canada. Children under 5 years of age are not required to provide a COVID-19 test result.

Pre-entry tests will still be required for partially vaccinated or unvaccinated travellers 12 and older who are currently eligible to travel to Canada.

All fully vaccinated travellers will no longer be required to provide a quarantine plan upon entry.

All travellers are still required to use ArriveCAN (free mobile app or website) to provide mandatory travel information within 72 hours of their arrival to Canada and/or before boarding a plane or cruise ship destined for Canada, including:

- contact and travel information, and
- vaccination information and proof of vaccination (if applicable).

Fully vaccinated travellers who do not submit their information into ArriveCAN:

- won't be eligible for the fully vaccinated traveller exemption (i.e., they may have to submit a pre-entry test result and suitable quarantine plan, quarantine and undergo testing in Canada);
- may face additional delays at the border for public health questioning; and
- may be subject to fines or other enforcement action.

All travellers, regardless of vaccination status, must also continue to wear a mask throughout their entire travel journey.

Immigration Friendly Policies

友善的移民政策

Canada has a number of immigration friendly policies that support pathways to permanent residency.

When surveyed, the majority of international students said they chose Canada with the intention of applying for permanent resident status at some point in the future.
