Professors

Professor
Byoung Kwon Sohn

Korean Foreign Policy and Relations in the 21st Century

Professor of the Department of Politics and International Relations, Chung-Ang University

Prof. Sohn is a faculty member of the Department of Politics and International Relations in Chung-Ang University, teaching American politics and foreign policy, Korea-U.S. relations, and Korean legislative and party politics. His most recent research interests cover Trumpism and U.S. imperial presidency.

Professor
Hee Seon Kim

Playing with Feeling: Seminar and Practice of Emotion in Games and Animation

Professor of Game Content & Animation, Chung-Ang University

Hee Seon Kim is a researcher interested in how games, animation and emotion meet. She studied in London at Kingston University and the Royal College of Art, and has taken part in projects with Google Arts & Culture, the V&A Museum, the BFI and the Korea Creative Content Agency. Her works have been shown and awarded at festivals and exhibitions in fifteen countries, including Hiroshima, Zagreb and Interfilm Berlin. At Chung-Ang University she runs the Affective Game Experience (AGX) Lab, looking at how players' emotions might be recognised and shaped during play.

The Chung-Ang University International Short-term Program is an intensive academic and cultural program that offers students the opportunity to earn academic credits while immersing themselves in the richness of Korean culture. Participants will engage in lectures and experiential learning sessions led by distinguished scholars and industry experts. Additionally, students will forge international friendships and broaden their global perspectives through interactions with peers from diverse backgrounds.

Professor
Tak Hoon Kim

Creating "My Own" K-Character Shorts with AI
