Visa

All students must apply for a visa to enter Taiwan.

One-semester Student

One-semester students are required to apply for a Visitor Visa to enter Taiwan. They need to extend the visa for another 60/90 days before the expiration date.

A multiple entry visa (if applicable) is suggested for students to better arrange their travel plans.

One-year Student

For students staying for a full academic year, they must obtain a Resident Visa to enter Taiwan, and they are required to apply for an Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) within 15 days after their arrival.

Students are suggested to contact the Taiwanese embassy in their country/region for the most up-to-date information.

Please do not make any financial commitments, travel, or accommodation plans before receiving a visa.

Insurance & Health Certificate

Insurance

You are required to purchase overseas travel insurance with medical and accident policies that cover the whole duration of your stay in Taiwan. The insurance plan in English or Chinese version must be submitted upon registration.

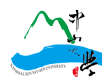

You are also required to purchase NSYSU Student Group Insurance (329NTD/semester) upon arrival.

One-year students are eligible to apply for the NHI (National Health Insurance). Please contact the OIA coordinator once you have continuously stayed in Taiwan for 6 months.

Health Examination

All exchange students are required to complete health examinations before coming to Taiwan.
One-semester students: Health Certificate Form C
One-year students: Health Certificate Form B

A copy of the medical form must be submitted upon registration.

Courses

Course Selection Phases

There are 5 course selection phases for exchange students each semester. The first online course selection will start two weeks before class begins.

- (1) Preliminary Course Selection II.
- (2) Add & Drop I.
- (3) Add & Drop II,
- (4) Exceptional Circumstances
- (5) Withdrawal

Exchange students will be assigned with NSYSU buddies, and they will be contacted through email before their arrival.

Students are suggested to arrive at NSYSU 5 days before the class begins to adjust to the new environment.

The orientation, campus tour, and welcome party are usually held on Friday before class begins and they are mandatory for all exchange students to attend.

Student Activities

We hold different activities for international students to know more about Taiwan. These activities also allow international students and local students to blend in.

Language Exchange Session
Monkey Ecological Tour
Cultural Field Trip
Company Visit
Farewell Party

...and more!
